

THE WAKEFIELD SANDWICH CHALLENGE!

The word came up, the word came down
Of a sandwich eating contest from Eby-Brown

The challengers came from most every state
Piling Wakefield Sandwiches on their plate

Now Wakefield's Chef is 5-Diamond schooled
Known for great quality - he can't be fooled

His first name's Matt and last name's Nickel
Gourmet sandwiches – garnished with a pickle!

Now they gathered 'round that table square
Getting ready to take that culinary dare

Each one stepping up to the "plate"
Gorging themselves and testing fate

First comes Little Elizabeth Cassidy
Putting out the flames with Tums antacid-y

She's affectionately known as "Rubber Gut"
After demolishing the buffet at a Pizza Hut

Next comes a man called Ian "The Invader"
Leaps tall steam tables like the caped crusader

The world's record holder eating Chili & Bean(s)
Ate 10 pounds in 5 minutes it seems

"Chow Hound" Chapman is the chair of the event
He ate his house and now resides in a pup tent

Bring them on both large and small
We've got enough Wakefield's for all, y'all

Ham and Cheese and Turkey on Rye
Set them down and watch them fly

Fine Roast Beef and great Chicken Salad -
Stuff's so good they wrote this ballad!
